

BRUCE HIRSCH
130 S. Euclid Avenue, Suite 1
Pasadena, CA 91101
(626) 395-7833
drbruce@sbcglobal.net

EXPERIENCE

MARIANNE FROSTIG CENTER PASADENA, CALIFORNIA

Director of Clinical Department at school and center for learning disabled students. Previously, Director of Diagnostic Services. Administration of departments, hiring and supervision of psychotherapists and diagnosticians, member of Management Council, psychotherapy with children, parent counseling, consultation to teaching staff, psychoeducational evaluations.

July 1981 to present.

PRIVATE PRACTICE PASADENA, CALIFORNIA

Clinical Psychologist specializing in psychotherapy with children and families, learning disabilities, attention deficit disorders.

August 1993 to present.

MARINA PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES, INC. MARINA DEL REY, CALIFORNIA

Owner/Officer and practicing psychotherapist in multidisciplinary psychological services group. Practice includes managed care contracts as well as traditional fee-for-service.

May 1995 to May 2005.

MARINA CENTER FOR THERAPY MARINA DEL REY, CALIFORNIA

Clinical Psychologist in group practice. Specializations in diagnosis and treatment of children and families, treatment of victims of crimes. Long-term and short-term (managed care) therapy.

July 1981 to April 1995.

CHILDREN'S MENTAL HEALTH CENTER COLUMBUS, OHIO

Psychological Assistant: Outpatient treatment, psychological evaluations, consultation at day care centers and schools.

September 1978 to September 1980.

PITTSBURGH CHILD GUIDANCE CENTER PITTSBURGH, PENNSYLVANIA

Psychology Intern: Direct service experiences in inpatient and outpatient settings, consultation at a preschool for retarded children. APA approved internship.

September 1977 to August 1978.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY COLUMBUS, OHIO

Graduate Teaching Associate: Taught two sections per quarter of undergraduate level Educational Psychology.

September 1974 to June 1976.

SAMUEL FIELD YM-YWHA LITTLE NECK, NEW YORK

Assistant educational therapist during school year and assistant head of camp during summer in Special Services Program serving retarded, brain-injured, and emotionally disturbed children.

June 1971 to June 1973.

EDUCATION

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY COLUMBUS, OHIO
Clinical Child Psychology Program. Entered September, 1973.
University Fellowship.
Master of Arts, June 1977.
Doctor of Philosophy, June 1981.

YALE UNIVERSITY NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT
Entered September, 1967. Major in Psychology.
Bachelor of Arts, Magna Cum Laude, High Honors in Psychology, June 1971.

PROFESSIONAL LICENSURE AND AFFILIATIONS

State of California Psychology License #PSY7729

Member, American Psychological Association (APA)

Member, APA Division on Clinical Child Psychology

Member, California Psychological Association (CPA)

Member, Los Angeles County Psychological Association (LACPA)

Member, National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC)

Allied Professional Member, Association of Educational Therapists (AET)

Member, American Professional Society on the Abuse of Children (APSAC)

Culver City PTA Parents Aware Committee, member: 1989-1994; chairman and conference moderator: 1990-92.

Professional Advisory Board, Foothill Chapter, Children & Adults with Attention Deficit Disorders (Ch.A.D.D.): 1999

WORKSHOPS, PRESENTATIONS & CONSULTATION

“The Connection Between Learning Disabilities and Emotional Difficulties in Young Children.”
Workshop presented to Southern California Association for the Education of Young Children,
February 25, 1989 and March, 17, 1990.

“How Practicing Psychologists Can Meet the Individual and Family Needs of Learning Disabled Clients” (with R.J. Goldberg & N. Spekman). Panel discussion presented at 43rd Annual California State Psychological Association Convention, March 2, 1990.

“Etiological Relationships between Learning Disabilities and Social-Emotional Problems: Implications for Psychotherapy” (with K. Herman). Paper presented at Psychotherapy and the Learning Disabled Client: An International Symposium, Missillac, France, August 27, 1990.

Consultant to Strong Medicine TV episode on Attention-Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD)
October 2000.

“Anxiety among Kids with LD: Three Clinical Psychologists Discuss Causes and Symptoms” & “How Parents Can Help Children Who Are Anxious” (with R.J. Goldberg & K. Herman). Two web-based interviews for SchwabLearning.org, July 2004.

Guest Expert on SchwabLearning.org parent message board: The emotional issues that children with learning and attention problems face. July 24-28, 2006.